We would like to acknowledge and thank our contributors for their generous support of the mission of the Center for Life Management.

Mission Statement

The mission of the Center for Life Management is to promote and advance the mental health and emotional well-being of the individuals, families and organizations within our community. We accomplish this through professional, individualized, comprehensive services and by partnering with other organizations that share our philosophy.

Contributions are listed as of October 2004. We make every effort to recognize all donors accurately and apologize for any unintentional errors or omissions. Please contact the Development office at (603) 893-3548 so that we may immediately correct our records.
